A., will go to New York to-day, from where they will sail to-morrow for Europe, where they will spend a year. Mrs. Aleishie's wife of Col. George Thals, U. S. A., who is now in Panama, will go abroad with them, to remain until after the holidays. Miss Dorothy Aleishie will spend the winter in school in Paris, and Mrs. Aleishie and Miss Marjorie Aleishie will spend the greater part of their time in Paris, too, with occasional trips about the Continent.

Commissioner Johnston has returned to the city from the Thousand Islands, where he and Mrs. Johnston spent the greater part of the summer. Mrs. Johnston, who accompanied Gen. Johnston as far as Philadelphia, will arrive in Washington early in October.

Gen. Samuel Owenshine, U. S. A., and Mrs. Owenshine and Miss Sally Owenshine have returned to this city from Nova Scotia, where they spent the summer months. They have opened their residence in Twenty-first street for the winter. They have as their house guests at present their son-in-law and daughter, Capt. G. F. Norvell, U. S. A., and Mrs. Norvell, who are en route to the Philippines, where Capt. Norvell's regiment has been ordered to duty. Capt. Norvell was formerly stationed at Fort Leavenworth, but he and Mrs. Norvell spent the summer months in Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Noyes and the latter's mother, Mrs. Charles Newbold, who spent the summer in Europe, arrived in New York on Monday. Mrs. Newbold came immediately to Washington, and will be joined here in a few days by her son-in-law and daughter at their home in Verboort avenue. The Misses Noyes, who accompanied their parents abroad, remained in Paris for the winter.

The marriage of Miss Mae Catharine Carr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Carr, and Mr. Philip Spethem McLean, of New York city, will occur at the home of the bride's parents, 270 P street, Wednesday evening, October 11. Following the ceremony a reception will be held from 7:30 to 9 o'clock. The bridegroom is in business in New York City, where the couple will reside.

Miss Annie K. Humphreys, of Washington, is at the Chalfont, Atlantic City. Miss Louise Phillips, of this city, is also there.

Mrs. Sevelon Brown, nee Barry, has gone to Providence, R. I., where she is making a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. Allan C. Blandine.

Rear Admiral Seaton Schroeder, U. S. N., Mrs. Schroeder, and the Misses Schroeder will remain at their cottage at Jamestown, R. I., until October 10, when they will return to Washington for the winter season.

Chief Justice Stanton J. Peelle, of the Court of Claims, and Mrs. Peelle, who spent the summer at Clifton Springs, New York, returned to Washington last evening and opened their apartment in the Stanton J. Peelle returned to Washington last evening from Westhampton, L. I., where they spent the past three months.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. McIlhenny, who spent the summer in New England, will return to Washington early next month, when they will open their residence in M street for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Weston are making a wedding trip in the North, and upon their return will reside in the Oregonian, where they will be home to their friends after November 1.

MAJ. W. P. ATWELL BURIED.

Military funeral for late Consul held at Arlington.

The military funeral of Maj. William P. Atwell, U. S. A., retired, late consul at Ghent, was held yesterday from Spence's chapel. Interment was at Arlington. Maj. Atwell died at his consular post in Belgium, on July 28, 1911, and his body was accompanied to Washington by Mrs. Atwell.

The body was received by a delegation of comrades from the Lincoln Post, No. 3, G. A. R., as well as an escort representing the Loyal Legion, and a representative of the State Department. After services at the chapel, the casket was placed on a caisson, and with a military escort from Fort Myer, taken to Arlington. Services at the grave were conducted by Chaplain Bradford, of the Loyal Legion, and Chaplain Bloodgood, of Lincoln Post, No. 3, G. A. R., after which the customary three volleys for a dead soldier were fired and "taps" sounded by soldiers from Fort Myer.

COPPERS ENJOY A SMOKER.

George Wheelock Gets Up and Gives a Recitation.

The Policemen's Association of the District opened the fall season last night with a smoker, entertainment, and buffet at Pythian Temple. George W. Sullivan presided and made the opening address, which was followed by a recitation by G. B. Wheelock; a bass solo by J. W. Dierksen; short addresses by C. P. M. Lord, Joseph Moore, William G. Stott, Henry Emmert, and L. D. Mahan, and a tenor solo by Wilson Oliver. Committees will be appointed to make plans for the entertainment of members on these occasions and it is hoped to improve the attendance at the regular meetings. Those having the affair in charge last night included William G. Stott, C. P. M. Lord, Joseph Moore, Joseph Much, and George W. Sullivan.

LEE McCLUNG BEATS
NORRIS McLEAN
District Tennis Tournament
Drawing to a Close.

Another large crowd turned out yesterday afternoon for play in the twenty-third annual District championship tennis tournament, when the third round in the men's singles was completed and nearly all of the semi-final round played.

In the feature match of the day, Lee McClung defeated Norris McLean after three exciting sets of brilliant tennis, 6-3, 6-2, and 6-4. In the semi-finals, McClung won the first set by John Britton and lost the second by 6-1. The first set was 6-2. Britton, who is a youngster at the game, put up a splendid game against his much older opponent. He lost many points by knocking the balls outside the back line and was especially strong in the opener. The match will be played at 3 o'clock.

Lee I. Doyle had an easy time winning from J. K. Graves in the other match in the semi-finals, the scores being 6-1, 6-2. Doyle, who is undoubtedly playing his best game of his career, is picked by many not only as the winner of the tourney, but to capture the title from Al Howard, the present champion.

Play will continue this afternoon, when the semi-finals in the men's singles will be completed and the final probably played. The second round in the men's consolation will be completed and the third round started, while in the doubles the second round will be finished and the third started. Play will begin at 2:30 o'clock.
